Cable-plus Phone

[Conditions]

This is applied automatically if you have "au smartphone/mobile phones" registered as your contact telephone number for your Cable Plus Phone contract, and the contract holder name or registered address is the same for Cable Plus Phone and for the registered au mobile phone.

[Conditions]

If the "contract holder home telephone number" registered with the au mobile phone contract is your Cable Plus Phone, calls to your home are free.

*NTT phones such as KDDI My Line are not eligible for free calls. *au Matome Talk is a service for individual users.

<24-hour free domestic calls from Cable-plus Phones to au mobile phones/au smartphones> *This is limited to customers who pay by account transfer or credit card. *International calls are free for the caller, but the recipient must pay call charges. *If the conditions for application are satisfied at the end of the month, application starts from that month.

<24-hour free domestic calls from au mobile phones/au smartphones to the user's home> *Eligibility for the discount starts from usage in the month after both the au smartphone or mobile phone and Cable-plus Phone start operating. *There is no discount for calls to the user's home from outside Japan. *Some services are not covered. *Basic monthly charges for au smartphone/au mobile phone and Cable-plus Phone, universal service fee and telecommunications relay service fee apply separately. *Eligible calls are only those to "the user's home telephone number" as registered in the contract for the au smartphone or mobile phone. *Invoices may be issued separately for one or two months, depending on the timing of the "KDDI Combined Billing" procedure. This period is not covered by free calling.
